

UP-DATE ON ESARN CHILDREN

Charity Club of Pattaya Project in Esarn

While Peter Rottmann was here in Pattaya collecting the food, we caught up on the news about Poo Gan and the other Children that the Charity Club of Pattaya help.

SITTIPONG
Nothing new to report on Sittipong, the Club still just keeping up with the boxed food and he has taken to the pureed fruit his mum can now give him since the Club sent up the food processor.

PA
Pa's mum is now finding it increasingly difficult to cope with Pa as he is growing into quite a young man. The problems are with moving him from one place to another, as his mum is quite a small frail lady. The Charity Club of Pattaya are looking into a home for the disabled in Bangkok who may take him we will let you know the ins and outs when we know.

MS PANTIP
Ms Pantip and her grandmother are now doing fine since the Club have been providing regular food parcels so that she can attend and enjoy school now that she doesn't have to work at the pig farm. The building of the house has resumed and we should have some up to date pictures soon.

POO GAN
Poo Gan has been back to the hospital in Bangkok as she has now had her pressure mask on her face and pressure bandage on her arm for 3 months. The Surgeon is VERY pleased with the way the skin is looking.

Poo Gan has to keep the pressure bandages on for 23 hours a day and they can only be removed when she has a shower, then mum has to massage the skin and put the bandages back on again. The Doctor will review her again every 2 months and renew her mask as she grows for about 2 years.

Poo Gan's mum has been very surprised that she hasn't really tried to pull the mask off.

Poo Gan is still a very happy little girl and is having great fun chasing her friends and scaring them all in her mask, as they all think she looks like an alien!
