

ESARN VISITOR ROBBED

Woman Assaulted on Arrival in Pattaya

A young woman, Miss Pachari, 20, from Nakhon Ratchasima (Korat) entered Pattaya Police Station on the morning of the 19th September to report that she had just been physically attacked and robbed by a gang of teenagers. The trauma was intensified for the girl as it was her first visit to Pattaya. She was with her friend Mr. Sukda, who also appeared with her at the station. They were riding along Third Road when a truck with about 10 young men pulled them over and threatened them both, hitting them before stealing their bike.

A report was made and an investigation is under way.

VISITORS FROM SISAKET

Esarn Students Visit to City Hall

A group of teachers and students from the Rajabhat University of Sisaket in North East Thailand (Esarn) visited Pattaya on the morning of the 22nd September for a field trip to study the administration works of City Hall.

They were welcomed by Councilor, Mr Pisai Panomwan Na Ayuthaya who told the team about City Hall planning projects and Pattaya municipality management.

They were lectured and shown a power point presentation of how Pattaya administers everything and learnt a lot of useful things for their studies back home in Sisaket.
