

CHARITY CLUB OF PATTAYA UPDATE

Malcolm and Christina Boden visits Esarn

The Charity Club of Pattaya visited their various projects, the children and elderly they have helped in Esarn in December.

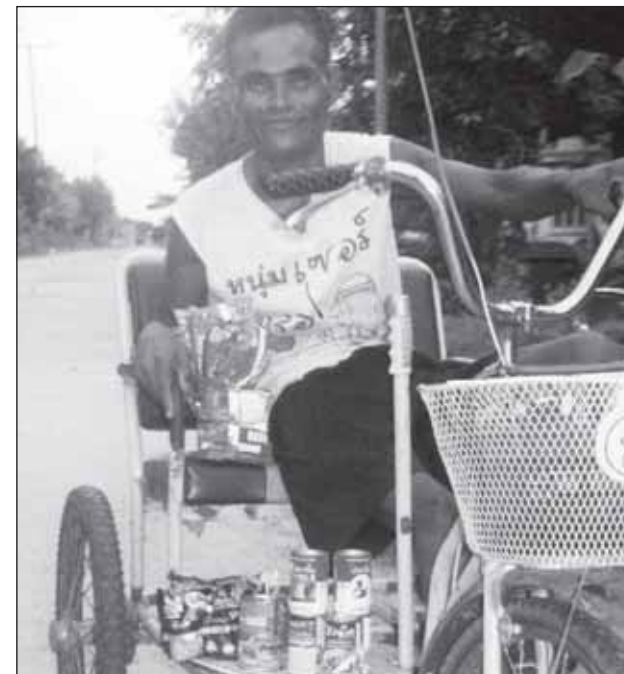

On arrival, Malcolm and Christina were greeted by many of the people they have helped with food parcels, wheelchairs and clothing over the past year. The boy's conditions were more or less the same and the Charity Club will continue supplying the special food they need due to eating and digestion problems.

Poo Gan the 2 year old little girl that fell into a fire and sustained many burns is coming on really well, the doctors are very pleased with her progress and she is now attending the hospital every month to have her pressure mask replaced.

Ms Pantip and her grandmothers house is slowly getting built, the villagers are doing this when they have any spare time from their work in the fields.

Pictured are some of the recipients of food parcels and wheel chairs.
