

YABA TALK

Argument Leads to Drug Find

Pattaya Police were informed on midnight of 5th November that a couple were having a serious argument in room 102 at Buakhao Hotel in Soi Buakhao. An officer went along to investigate at the scene and met the couple who cooled down when they saw the officer. The room was rented by Ms Ampai Nijrom, aged 24 years from Khon Kaen in North East Thailand. The officer was suspicious about the couple and decided to search the room and indeed his suspicions were correct as he found a pack of Ya Ice and 4 Yaba tablets. She was arrested and taken back to Pattaya Police Station for further investigation. At the station she confessed to possessing the drugs for personal use. She has now been charged with drug use and faces her day in court soon.

GOLD SNATCH

Another Gold Snatching Case

At the Petchtakul Checkpoint at 2pm on 7th November, Pattaya police and police volunteers arrested a gold snatcher, Mr. Sakda Tanhome, aged 22 from Khon Kaen, and his friend Mr. Chai. From the investigation both men on a motorbike followed Ms. Anurath Keawsomdee, aged 26 years then rapidly chased her along the road in an attempt to snatch her gold necklace. As they tried to escape from the scene they got involved in an accident at interjection near World Gems Pattaya North Road. An officer was soon on the scene and took them back to station for more investigation.

Sakda pleaded guilty giving the reason to rob to have money for his young baby. However, police discovered that Sakda had been involved in drug dealing convictions in the past, and will now be detained for further questioning.
