

VISITORS FROM UBON

Observing the Working System of Pattaya

A group of 80 government officers from Ubon Ratchathani in the north east (Esarn) region of Thailand came to visit Pattaya on the morning of the 26th June for a field trip to study the administration works of City Hall. They were welcomed by Mr. Pichaet Outhaiwatananon who told the officers about City Hall planning projects and the municipality management. The purpose of their visit that day was to learn more about how City Hall takes care of the administration and development in technology. They were lectured and shown a description of how Pattaya manages everything and learnt a lot of useful things for their studies and were very satisfied with the trip.

VISITORS FROM SISAKET

Esarn Police Officers in Pattaya

Pattaya received a rare but welcome visit from a number of police officers from Sisaket, in the North East (Esarn) region of Thailand on the 1st July. Police Lieutenant Colonel Sanon Samonpan and fellow officers paid a visit to Pattaya in the morning to observe how the Police system operates in the City.

After a meeting at City Hall they all went out to the various stations to observe everyday incidents. They were very impressed especially by the GPS cameras and stated that Pattaya has a highly developed and hi-tech system which should be copied and utilised in other regions, including Sisaket and nearby Ubon Ratchathani area.
