Club News & Notices

News... Continuing our new tradition of announcing the next speaker in advance (as long as our programme manager has the information confirmed), On September 12th we have Dr. Sompong Ratanarojpusit, M.D., Orthopedic Surgeon, from Bangkok Pattaya Hospital speaking on - Spine Problem in Aging Patients. Open Mic Forum - This week, John Coughtrie is the moderator who will 'referee' and encourage discussion in our famous Open Microphone Forum. The questions are from and answered by our live audience. It's a lively mutual exchange of information, with a little humour and advice from Asia hands and expats in the meeting room. It's not a knowledgeable stage presentation, it's the PEC Members programme segment, for all those practical questions on life in Thailand in general, and in Fun-Town in particular. Also during this session if you are new in town or to the meeting, feel free to grab the microphone and introduce yourself to the group and ask any questions you may have.

Club TV Reports. Our PEC weekly meeting content has a generous segment on
