

GO TO THE MALL IN THE DAYTIME

We are continuing our "Bar Hopping Guide" to Angeles City in the Philippines. Some would call it the world's largest concentration of go-go bars. A lot of foreign residents in Pattaya go to Angeles on a regular basis; when you are there you will meet many familiar faces from Pattaya. When you choose where to stay you should know that the best hotel in Angeles is the ABC hotel, but you need to send them an email to make a reservation; their restaurant is very good as well! All female employees of bars and clubs located in Angeles City are licensed by the city government. The minimum age for obtaining a license is 18. Private Dancer: The former Illusions. Closed briefly and changed its name. Wolf remains as the owner. Butterfly: Located just a bit down the alley behind Illusions. This place goes up and down. Sometimes they have some great staff and other times it's atrocious. Right now, it's in between. One Saturday, walked into the place and all the seats were filled with Filipino men. We wasted no time in leaving. The Jungle (formerly Connections): The owners have done wonders for Jungle. Unfortunately, their long time manager left recently and it remains to be seen what effect this will have on the business. The girls are good to very good. Bunny Ranch (formerly Monte Carlo): "First of all, it's very well done inside. Top quality everything. From the covering of the seats to the floor tiles to the great mirrors and the beautiful decor. It's really a classy place. There must be enough air conditioning to store meat. The place can handle

ANY size crowd and it won't get warm. Like any new bar, they're going through some 'pain'. Daddy William had no idea what would work and what wouldn't. Mostly everything works. When looking at the place, I think I might have done a few things differently. But all-in-all, I think this place is fantastic."

The Kitten Club: The old Valhalla. "The Kitten Club is a very clean and well decor place. The girls are great looking as well. They won't allow photos so I think the manager is losing some free advertisement. The only shots you could take would be very tasteful so I am not sure what the problem is but then that is his call." Alaska Club: Formerly Bahama Mama's, Byrd Cage. Stop in for a look. Brown Sugar: Newest addition to the Champagne Group of bars. Completely remodeled. The owner, Horst, is using the same formula he uses at Champagne and Volcano. He packs the stage with girls of only average appearance. At one time he had the usual assortment of great looking waitresses, but now they are average.

Mommy Jinky left KOD to join them and took several stunners with her, but they recently returned to Mo's Group. "The new Brown Sugar opens at 2 PM and yesterday I counted 47 customers at 5 PM. Great lineup, good aircon, good music, great management, P125 ladies drinks... what more could we ask for? IMO this is one of the top 2-3 clubs in town right now and it seems to be improving daily." "This is definitely an up and coming bar.

The makeover from the old Ziggy's is startling. The atmosphere is very warm and comfy—kind of lounge-like. Good lineup of dancers, and very attentive wait staff. As word gets out I think this will become one of the most popular bars in town." It's kinda quiet customer-wise but a stage packed full o' honeys. I made a mistake that after 2 years of bar hopping I should know better. I asked for a vodka and cranberry. 5 minutes later that's what I got. One glass of vodka, and one cranberry. Cute." Daytime activities: Angeles City is a "night place"; during the day some bars are open, and there is not much to do except going to the bars. However, you can visit the incredible big shopping mall inside Clark, here you can walk around in air conditioning and do some shopping (nice shirts in the Philippines) or enjoy a coffee at one of the cafes. Golf is also available, but talk to the hotel about this.
